"Before KidStartNow, we had totally no idea how to improve Jue Ming's Chinese. Thank goodness, KidStartNow came into the picture, and is exactly what Jue Ming needed. After just a few lessons, his Chinese improved tremendously especially in expressing his thoughts, and he uses advanced phrases that surprise us. Jue Ming always looks forward to class, which have built a strong foundation and helped him perform well in primary school."

- Lee May, Mother of Jue Ming

(P3, topped Chinese in Fengshan Primary)

"I was very encouraged to see Ada's progress during the holiday program. She didn't resist when I asked her to write a journal, and even decided to write about our home. After I printed her work, she even set up a Chinese blog to practise writing. Thank you so much!"

- Dadina, mother of Ada

FROM HATING TO LOVING CHINESE COMPO

Kids find compo writing boring because they don't find what they write about fun or meaningful. We have helped over 1000 kids find joy in writing through our experiential hands-on approach.

With our AI-powered vocabulary learning system, your child can leverage on the knowledge gained from the camp to further build on their foundation in writing.
